Terms and Conditions for securing a Tenancy on the above property

Holding Deposit £363.46

Holding Deposit payments are subject to

- A. The Landlords final consent and an executed (signed) Tenancy Agreement. This Holding Deposit form does not constitute any part of a Tenancy Agreement and either the Applicant(s) or the Landlord or Agent reserves the right to cancel the reservation at any point prior to the Tenancy Agreement being executed.
- B. the Applicant(s), having viewed the property.
- C. I/We the Applicant(s), understand that the Holding Deposit is non-refundable in the event of one or more of the following reasons
 - I/We, provide any false or misleading information which the Landlord or Agent can reasonably take into account when deciding to let a property – this can include your behaviour in providing the false and misleading information
 - I/We, fail the Right to Rent Check
 - I/We, decide not to proceed with a tenancy (i.e. you 'withdraw' from a property) – Excluding where the Landlord or Agent imposes a requirement that breached the ban or acted in such a way towards you or relevant person that it would be unreasonable to expect you to enter into a tenancy agreement with them
 - I/We, fail to take all reasonable steps to enter into a tenancy agreement prior to the 'Deadline for Agreement' (and the landlord or agent takes all reasonable steps to do so, for example, clearly requesting information required to progress the tenancy)
- D. the Applicant(s), understand that upon completion of the Tenancy Agreement and paperwork, the Holding Deposit will automatically be transferred to the balance of the property's Dilapidations Deposit.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR TENANTS

Right to Rent Checks - Passport Requirement

Current UK Law requires that we must see YOU & YOUR PASSPORT together to comply with the Right To Rent Checks, this means without exception EACH TENANT must within 5 days of accepting a property visit our office to show us their passport (and where applicable visa).

Data Protection

By completing this Application form as a group you agree to us processing the data you have provided to us to. We will therefore process your personal data as part of our contract with you, for legitimate interests and or to comply with legal obligation.

You hereby consent to us passing your personal data to your future Landlord, between all your future tenants and their guarantors, Inventory Clerks, Utility providers, referencing agency, and other independent contractors for functions such as (for example) data and file storage, back-up, destruction, billing, debt collection, processing your application, to ensure that the property is maintained/repaired. We may share personal data with professional advisers used by us to provide you with the tenancy service such as legal advisers or as required by Law to the HMRC, the local council, police, and deposit protection schemes etc.

We will ensure that all reasonable technical and organisational measures are taken to protect any personal data supply by you to us against unauthorised or lawful processing, accidental loss, destruction or damage, including when we sub-contract any processing (for example, in the case of external storage of data).

We may also process as data controller personal data concerning our clients and contacts in other ways for our own business purposes (for example, but not limited to day to day processing, client management, billing, archives). We may also process and transfer personal data as necessary to affect a re-organisation of our business.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

The Landlord requires that all tenants provide a Guarantor.

Q: What is a Guarantor?

A Guarantor is a third party, such as a parent, legal guardian or close relative, who agrees to pay your rent if you don't pay it. Nicholas Krestovnikoff & Barns Morison can ultimately take legal action to recover any unpaid rent from the Guarantor. The Guarantor must also upon request be able to show evidence funds to support being a guarantor. Income is normally required to be a minimum of 3.5 * monthly rental and or a homeowner.

Q: What if I do not have a UK Guarantor?

This may present a problem for you if you are an international student, so if you can't get a UK-based Guarantor, you are normally asked to pay all your share of the rental upfront.

Unfortunately, insurance-based guarantor schemes such as Housing Hand are not accepted for this property.
