SITUATION:

Minster is a pretty village and one of the jewels in the district of Thanet. It is situated to the west of Ramsgate and to the northeast of Canterbury. It is surrounded by lovely countryside of mainly marshes, farmland and rivers. It has a small Church of England primary school, a railway station and a local bus service that runs to Ramsgate and the local area. For a village it has a very good range of local shops and services including a doctors and dentists, but if you need more Westwood Cross is approximately a 15 minute drive from the property. This is a large shopping centre and cinema complex, with most of the high street brands represented. The property borders Monkton, a village with its own church, St. Mary Magdalene, The White Stag public house, which offers excellent food and a church of England primary school, which was built in 1872 and extended and modernised in 2007. Ramsgate is a seaside town on the east Kent coast which boasts a picturesque coast line, and the UK's only Royal Harbour. This thriving marina incorporates over 800 moorings, a range of marine-related businesses and a cosmopolitan café culture operating within the renovated arches under The Royal Parade, lining the waterfront. The grand Promenades and crescents that overlook the harbour are reminiscent of the rich period in Ramsgate's history, and architecturally provide a stunning backdrop to the marina.

The cathedral city of Canterbury is just 11 miles to the west and is a vibrant and cosmopolitan city, with a thriving city centre offering a wide array of high street brands alongside a diverse mix of independent retailers, cafes and international restaurants. The city also offers a fine selection of sporting, leisure and recreational amenities, including the refurbished Marlowe Theatre. Canterbury has an excellent choice of educational amenities, ranging from Grammar schools to highly regarded private schools and three universities. Easy access to mainland Europe is facilitated by the port of Dover just 12 miles to the south and the Channel Tunnel a further 7 miles.
