A delightful terraced house situated on the edge of the harbour village in the historic market town of Penryn, within walking distance of the town centre, Anchor Quay, Penryn Bridge and river.

The accommodation is well presented throughout and offer reverse-level living with the accommodation in brief comprising; two double bedrooms and a bathroom on the ground floor whilst upstairs there is a generous dual aspect sitting/dining room and kitchen. Outside, to the rear, there is a fully enclosed low maintenance garden which has stone and timber boundaries and a gate giving easy access to the main road.

Eastwood Road runs alongside Penryn's South Harbour with access to the town centre. Sainsbury's and Lidl supermarkets are close by along with the many commercial and leisure facilities along Commercial Road. At the end of the road there is a regular bus service.

Penryn is an historic market town which offers a great community with its selection of shops, restaurants, public houses, surgeries and banks. There are many local sports clubs that include football, rugby, cricket and educational facilities including Penryn Junior School, Penryn College and Falmouth University (Tremough Campus). There are good transport links with a regular bus service and the branch line station that links Falmouth Docks to the cathedral city of Truro and the mainline to London Paddington. The neighbouring town of Falmouth is close by and offers an eclectic range of commercial and leisure facilities.

As the owners' sole agents, we highly recommend an early appointment to view.
