This simply charming, well maintained, thatched, stone fronted cottage is set in the heart of the popular village of Constantine and has a wealth of character features including beamed ceilings, inglenook fireplace and exposed stone walling in some rooms.

The versatile accommodation in brief comprises; entrance hall, open plan kitchen/dining room and dual aspect lounge to the ground floor and three well appointed bedrooms and good sized bath/shower room to the first floor. Outside the property, there is a walkway at the rear to a small courtyard garden and the useful addition of the single garage.

The popular village of Constantine has a host of amenities at hand including two convenience stores with off licences, The Tolman Centre and museum that hosts a number of events and Constantine Social Club with its recreation and children's playground facilities. There is a bowling green and Constantine also has their own football and cricket teams. Other facilities include a doctors surgery, a highly regarded primary/junior school, St Constantine Parish Church, The Cornish Arms public house and The Tregilly Wartha Inn a little further out of the village. There is also a local bus service that provides transport links from Helston to Falmouth.

As the vendors' sole agents, we highly recommend an early appointment to avoid disappointment.
