A great opportunity to own this superb, luxurious, two bedroom ground floor apartment which sits at the front of this quality small development high above Maenporth Beach at West Bay taking in delightful views to the countryside and towards the sea.

This apartment has been and continues to be a successful holiday letting investment with our clients also using the property for their own enjoyment and this comes to the market as a 'turn key' investment with no onward chain. The apartment is currently being let by Classic Cottages (Helston) who are taking bookings for the coming year and are happy to continue as the appointment holiday letting service.

This fabulous apartment is packed with features which makes this a stunning destination for a holiday or a permanent home and these include under floor heating throughout the property, an impressive 28" entrance hall, engineered oak flooring, wooden internal doors, UPVC double glazed windows and doors, a fitted kitchen in high gloss white with quality built in appliances and all fixtures and fittings too.

A security entry phone system or key provides access from the front of the building into a communal entrance hall with lift to the left taking you to the upper floors and then your own front door leads into a long reception hall which runs through to the front where you will find a glorious open plan living area with a kitchen and access onto a full width balcony which enjoys fabulous views across to the countryside and towards the sea. The principal bedroom has a luxurious ensuite shower room, there is a second double bedroom and a well appointed main bathroom in white. Outside the property there are well managed grounds, numbered allocated parking space and another separate space for your visitors.

As our client's appointed sole agents, we thoroughly recommend an immediate viewing to secure this fine property.
