We like to offer for sale, this delightful two bedroom end of terrace house which is set in a popular residential location at Swanvale, within walking distance of local amenities at Boslowick, local schools, Penmere Halt branch line railway station, Swanpool beach and a further stroll into Falmouth bustling town centre.

The house was originally built by Messrs Siley Cox in the 1920's for the shipyard workers and remarkably they are probably the first houses in Falmouth to be built of red brick.

The property has been a comfortable home for our clients since 2017 and during their ownership they have maintained the property and upgraded whilst keeping some of the character features intact.

Packed with features including, gas fired central heating by radiators, UPVC double glazed windows and doors, focal point open fireplace in the living/dining room. panelled internal doors and picture rails in some rooms.

The accommodation includes an entrance hall, living/dining room, fitted kitchen/breakfast room, two double bedrooms and a large bath/shower room combined in white. Outside the property at the front there are steps leading down to a patio area with raised well stocked flower beds and side access a locking gate into a superb rear garden again with large patio, lawns and beautifully stocked borders and rockeries.

An early viewing is essential to secure this fine property.

Why not call for an appointment to view today!
