A spacious and well-proportioned architecturally designed four bedroom detached residence located on a small cul-de-sac in a lovely location of South Downs on the Falmouth side of the historic market town of Redruth.

The property has undergone much improvement by the current vendors and is now exceptionally well presented throughout with many modern features including a beautifully fitted modern kitchen, gas central heating and double glazing throughout.

The spacious and well proportioned, versatile accommodation comprises in brief; a covered entrance, main hallway, triple aspect living room, beautifully fitted modern kitchen, sun room/utility room, family well appointed bathroom and two generous double bedrooms on the ground floor. To the first floor there is a further landing and another two double bedrooms, the principal being 19'9" and having an en-suite shower room. Outside, in addition to the large gravelled driveway that has parking for 7/8 cars, there is a detached garage with inspection pit. The properties gardens are a true delight and a credit to the current vendors as they comprise if well stocked gardens with lawns and a range of patio and decking areas.

South Downs in a desirable location on the Falmouth side of Redruth and has a pleasant feel to it with a small cul-de-sac that backs onto open countryside and is also accessible to the town of Redruth but also the trunk road to the A30 and to Falmouth. The historic market town of Redruth offers a good selection of facilities in the centre including independent and high street branded shops, pubs, bars and restaurants, a multi-screen cinema and theatre, educational facilities and of course the mainline station connecting to Penzance in the West and London Paddington and all points North in a Westerly direction. Redruth is situated about 12 miles from the cathedral city of Truro, 10 miles from the harbour town of Falmouth and only a short drive away from the rugged coastline and many beautiful sandy beaches that the North coast has to offer.

A viewing is strongly recommended to fully appreciate the properties size, flexible accommodation and its presentation.
