A great opportunity to own this delightful, late Victorian three bedroom home which is set in an enviable and elevated location near the village centre and commanding superb rural views across miles of open fields to the horizon.

The house has attractive double fronted granite elevations, complemented by box sash style UPVC double glazed windows and a conservatory porch. Internally the house has been created with much imagination and style and still retains much character and charm.

Packed with features including oil fired central heating by radiators, a focal point open Victorian fireplace with hand painted tiles and beams in the sitting room, natural wood flooring to the ground floor, a newly fitted luxury kitchen with quality integrated appliances, painted latch and brace internal doors, Positive Input Ventilation PIV Vent-Axia with Heater (December 2025) and beautiful bathroom in white.

The spacious and well planned accommodation includes an entrance conservatory/porch, dining room with beamed ceilings, sitting room, quality fitted kitchen, rear hallway, a study/home office and a staircase leading to the first floor landing where you can find three double bedrooms and a well appointed bathroom/wc combined. Outside the property there are mature gardens to the front with full width patio, lawned areas and splendid views across open countryside and at the rear, an enclosed garden with patio, small lawn and backing onto fields.

This delightful home is situated on the edge of the popular village of Four Lanes, just a few minutes walk from the village centre, and close to the historic town of Redruth which is just a short drive away and offers a comprehensive centre with local independent and high street shops plus banks, butchers, public houses, cinema and supermarkets. The mainline railway station which links Penzance to Paddington is conveniently located at the top of the town. For those of you who love the outdoor life, the Great Flat Load is only a short walk or cycle away for dog walking, mountain biking and strolls.

As our clients' sole agents we thoroughly recommend an immediate viewing to secure this fine property.
