Externally

A central flagged pathway leads to the front entrance with slate chippings to either side with space for seating with stone and timber fence panelling bordering. To the rear is an enclosed low maintenance flagged patio garden, perfect for entertaining or relaxing in with timber sleepers providing that finishing touch along with a stone wall and timber panel fencing bordering.

Agents Notes

We are informed there is a communal private sewerage treatment plant together with a communal private water supply and it is therefore envisaged that a shared cost of providing water and drainage will be comparatively cheap, and therefore very appealing.

We have been advised by our Clients that each of the barn conversions will be Freehold, with 2 allocated parking spaces per property. We understand the communal grounds and parking will be owned by The Freehold Management Committee Of Which All Owners Are Members Of & Have A Share In. All interested parties are advised to have their legal adviser explore the same when the necessary.
