Location

Capel Lodge is ideally located within the village of Trearddur Bay and only a few steps from the beautiful sweeping beach which offers excellent water sports facilities and a lovely promenade.

The village shops include a mini supermarket, a golf course and several very popular eating establishments are close by. Just a few miles away is the main port of Holyhead, with a mainline railway station, a ferry port providing regular daily sailings to and from Ireland and the start of the A55 expressway. Additionally the town has several primary schools, a secondary school and a wide range of shopping.
